MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS (CONTINUED)

Prospects and future plan

Our equity portfolio has deteriorated further over the past quarter. Global markets have turned volatile as NYSE index reached new heights even though many European nations remained mired in debt and companies announced uninspiring results. Lacklustre performance by some of our investments caused further erosion in value of our portfolio.

Looking forward, volatility in bond yields stemming from concerns of potential scaling back of QE and slowing growth in emerging economies will continue to dent investor's appetite for risk assets. Equity markets may come under pressure in the short term and the outlook is less sanguine.

We will tread more cautiously in our selection of investment alternatives during this uncertain time but will remain focus on our chosen path of investing in resources, technology, food and healthcare products which constitute a balance approach.
